REPUBLIC DECREED BY AID OF ARMS

Workmen and Troops Took Possession of City.

SQUAD OF CAVALRY IS AMBUSHED

Stories of Desperate Fighting Between Troops and Insurgents—Barbarities Practiced on Landlords—Insurgents Lost 300 Men; Dragoons, 14.

Mitau, Province of Courtland, Russia (Undated) by mail to St. Petersburg, Dec. 19.—Frightful stories are pouring in from the interior where desperate fighting has occurred between the troops and insurgents. Revolting tales are told of the barbarities practiced on the German landlords who are more detested by the Letts than are the Russians. In a fight near Tuscum 14 dragoons were killed and 16 wounded. It is estimated that the insurgents lost 300 men killed.

A squadron of cavalry was ambushed and badly cut up near Grosantz and limped into Mitau with its wounded.

Fear Polish Uprising.

St Petersburg, Dec. 20.—Despite the statement that two army corps are being sent to the Baltic provinces, it is learned that no considerable number of troops are available. The government has sent two regiments from St. Petersburg in reply to the frantic appeals for reinforcements, but it is considered too dangerous to deplete the garrison of the capital any further during the present crisis, and the government can only await the arrival of the Cossacks and other troops which are being hurried forward by General Linevitch from Manchuria. In the meantime the government's fear is that the rebellion which is extending southward to the Polish frontier may arouse the Poles to an armed uprising.

Republic Established.

Reliable details regarding the establisament of the so-called republic of Kharkoff have at last arrived. The workmen's Socialist organizations joined by 300 troops, took possession of the city and with the aid of militia armed with pikes, revolvers and axes, established a government of "federated council," as the executive committee was called. This council issued decrees which the authorities were perfectly powerless to resist.

The council turned off the electricity from the houses on the ground that it benefited the rich while allowing it to burn in the street, it benefited the people. When a robber was captured he was placed under a trip hammer with the threat that it would be dropped unless he revealed the whereabouts of the booty. This was usually effective, and the stolen goods returned to its owner.

Two notorious robbers were hanged in the public square.

SIX KILLED BY EXPLOSION.

Caused by Drilling in Hole in Which Dynamite Had Been Left.

New York, Dec. 20.—Six men were killed and more than a dozen injured in a dynamite explosion in an excavation for a new building opposite the Waldorf-Astoria hotel today.

The explosion was caused by some workmen who started to re-drill a partially drilled hole in which several sticks of dynamite had been left last night. About 20 men were at work in the vicinity of this particular hole.

Some of them were blown to atoms. There were 80 men at work in the entire excavation.

Pioneer Railroader Dead.

Oakland, Cal., Dec. 20.—Luther Fillmore, formerly superintendent of the South Pacific coast (narrow gauge) running between Oakland and Santa Cruz, died yesterday at the age of 79 years. Mr. Fillmore was a pioneer in railroading in the United States At the age of 21 years he built the Syracuse and Binghampton railroad and in 1851 rebuilt the Erie road.

BOYS' REFORM SCHOOL BURNED.

Three Hundred Inmates Were Housed in the Building.

Washington, Dec. 20.—The boys' reform school of the District of Columbia, located some distance outside of Washington, caught fire at 3 o'clock this morning and the main building in which were housed 300 boys, was totally destroyed. The loss is estimated at $50,000. No lives were lost.

As soon as the alarm was sounded the guards immediately set about rescuing the boys at the same time summoning to their aid police reserves.

It is not believed that any of the prisoners got away from the institution. In fact, most of them rendered valuable aid to the members of the fire department in the effort to save the surrounding structures, and it is said were under good control of their guards from the start.

The cause of the fire is not definitely known, but it is believed to have resulted from spontaneous combustion. Many supplies were also destroyed.

BILL FAVORABLY REPORTED.

Will Admit All Philippine Products Free Except Sugar and Tobacco.

Washington, Dec. 20.—By a vote of 7 to 5 the house committee on ways and means reported favorable today on the Payne bill admitting all Philippine products into the United States free excepting sugar and tobacco, which are to pay 25 per cent of the Dingley rates until 1909, when they also are to go on the free list.

Two amendments were made to the measure originally introduced in the house by Mr. Payne. At the suggestion of Representative Hill, of Connecticut, a provision was added that all American sugar and tobacco are to be admitted into the Philippines free of duty, and a new section was added which provides that no Philippine products now in warehouses in the United States shall be exempted from duties under the proposed measure.

Washington Opposes Lyons.

Washington, Dec. 20.—Register of the Treasurey Judson Lyons, the Augusta negro lawyer who for eight years has been Republican national committeeman, has not given up hope that he may not yet be reappointed to the high position he now holds, but the friends of other applicants are claiming they have the president's positive promise that the place shall go to some other representative of the race. The strongest factor in opposition to Lyons is unquestionably Booker Washington. These two men may be taken as the leading representatives of the two wings of the race in this country—Washington standing for the educational side, with his platform of non-participation in politics, and Lyons for the political side.

No Evidence Offered in Hummel Case.

New York, Dec. 20.—Abram H. Hummel, the lawyer who, for several days has been on trial in the supreme court on a charge of conspiracy in connection with the Dodge-Morse divorce litigation, today elected to allow his case to go to the jury solely on the evidence submitted by his accusers. The prosecution finished its case yesterday and when the trial was resumed today, counsel for Hummel announced that they were prepared to rest their case. They did not desire to offer any evidence in defense.

Want to Change Statute.

New York, Dec. 20—State Historian Hugh Hastings called on Mayor McClellan yesterday to talk over with him the alleged blunder in the design of the statue of the mayor's father, "Little Mac," which is to be erected in Washington. General McClelland in the model made by Frederick MacMonnies, wears a slouch hat. Members of the Loyal Legion assert that he never wore any such head gear while in the federal army. They want the statue changed so that the general shall wear a fatigue cap.

Bishop Finds Cross.

Buffalo, N. Y., Dec. 20.—Bishop Cotton has notified the police that the gold cross set with rubies reported to have been stolen had been found in the folds of his robe.

ARMEED ARMENIANS ARE ON RAMPAGE

Three Hundred Houses in Mussulman Quarter Fired.

PREVENTED ESCAPE OF INMATES

Fifty-Seven Turkish Subjects Known to Hhave Perished—Armed Guards and Patrols Maintained in Shanghai To Cope with Coolie Troubles.

Constantinople, Dec. 20—The latest dispatch received from Tiflis, Caucasia, today says that 300 houses in the Mussulman quarter were set on fire by armed Armenians who prevented the inmates from leaving and fired on the firemen who attempted to extinguish the flames.

The total number of Mussulmans killed is not yet ascertained, but 57 Turkish subjects are known to have perished. The fighting was continuing on Dec. 17, when the telegram was forwarded, and the Turkish consulate was overcrowded with refugees.

A telegram of the same date from Batoum, Caucasia, reports a continuance of the disorders there.

Fears of a general massacre prevailed in the Mussulman district.

A transport with soldiers has left Constantinople for Batoum to take off the Turks.

Street Filled with Rowdies.

Shanghai Dec. 20.—Armed guards and patrols are maintained here to cope with a possible renewal of the disturbances. The streets are filled with rowdies. The shops are open, but looting is greatly feared. The U. S. cruiser Baltimore will land a force today and the British cruiser Diadem is sending 500 men ashore. Other warships are expected, and it is reported that German troops are coming here from Kiaochau.

The Chinese newspapers say the rowdies proposed to take advantage of the mixed court dispute to attack and loot the foreign settlement.

94 Per Cent of Cotton Ginned.

Dallas, Tex., Dec. 20.—The national ginners' report was not completed at noon today but President J. A. Taylor authorized the statement that 489,520 bales of cotton had been ginned since the last report, making a total of 8,975,520 bales ginned to Dec. 13. President Taylor said that the crop is 94 per cent ginned. The National Ginners' association will meet here this afternoon to elect officers.

Depositors Being Paid.

Bedford, Ind., Dec. 20.—When the Bedford National bank, of which John R. Walsh, of Chicago, is president and principal stockholder opened for business today, the room soon filled with small depositors who were paid as fast as possible. There was little excitement, but the small depositors continued. Other banks have offered assistance, but it has been declined as unnecessary.

Passed Bill for Relief of Dead.

Washington, Dec. 20—The senate began its session today by passing a bill for the relief of a dead man, the late Lieutenant William H. Hugo, who was cashiered in 1851, as Mr. Pettus, who reported the bill said, for the offense of being "tipsy" at roll call. The senator said the bill had passed the senate every session since he had been a member. At 12:45 p. m. the senate went into executive session.

Must Follow Wife to Grave.

Huntsville, Ala., Dec. 20.—W. M. McCarty, and his wife were found dead on a bed at their home in the Monrovia precinct. The woman had been shot, while the cause of the man's death was chloroform. McCarty left a note in which he stated that he accidetally shot his wife while playing with his pistol, and that he must follow her. McCarty was a farmer. The coroner's jury accepted McCarty's version of the tragedy.

ASSIGNMENT TO CREDITORS.

The Amount Will Reach to Quite a Large Sum.

Pittsburg, Dec. 20.—Joseph Hastings for years associated in business with the late Cashier Clark, of the defunct bank of Allegheny, made an assignment Monday.

The amount of the assignment will reach probably $500,000. The Union Trust company of Pittsburg was made receiver. Counsel for Mr. Hastings issued a statement last night saying that his client had been pulled down through trying to take care of bills of Clarke.

Mr. Hastings was president of the Ohio Valley Water company, and was connected with many other large enterprises both in Pennsylvania and other states. He was the owner of an immense stock farm in Kentucky.

Deputies Make Great Raid in Virginia Mountains.

Gate City, Va., Dec. 20.—Deputy United States Marshall R. H. Wisley, assisted by a posse of citizens, made a most successful raid on the line between Scott and Russell counties, capturing six men and their distillery.

The prisoners were brought here and placed in jail.

They were operating their still in a spacious cave in the edge of Russell county. The cave was entered by means of a ladder, and the still was back about 40 feet from the place of entrance, with some plank set up to shut off the light.

Conference May Be Held at Madrid.

Washington, Dec. 20.—Ambassador White has been named as one of the representatives of the United States at the approaching Morocco conference, has informed Secretary Root of the proposition now being placed before European governments to change the place for the conference from Algeciras to Madrid. Mr. White's communication does not appear to require any direct expression by the state department on this matter just at present, but it is said that no objection suggess itself to the change in the program.

Storage Plant Planned.

Birmingham, Ala., Dec. 20.—Prominent business men here are said to be contemplating the construction of a cold storage plant in this city at a cost of about $100,000. The demand has been felt for some years, and is said that expenses and losses have been especially heavy for the last two years or so on account of the lack of a plant of the sort in Birmingham. So pressing has this need been at times that the local merchants have had to resort to far-distant cities like Chicago and New York.

Need Not Bear Notice

New York, Dec. 20.—George C. Hoff, in the United States circuit court yesterday handed down a decision that paintings and sculptures need not be marked with the customary "copyright notice" in order to protect them from piracy. The decision sustained an action brought by Emil Weirckmeister against the American Lithograph company, and the American Tobacco company, the plaintiff charging violation of his copyright.

Arrested for Horse Stealing.

Cedartown, Ga., Dec. 20.—Henry Spurling, a white man and a former convict has been arrested and securely locked in the Centre, Ala., jail. Spurling is wanted here for stealing a mule from W. W. Cone, a prosperous farmer of this county, about the middle of October. It is charged he made away with the mule that he had stolen here and went to Alabama and then stole, it is claimed, a horse from M. A. Mitchell of Rock Run, Ala.

The building is one of the prettiest of its kind in the state, the exterior being of stone and terra cotta. The interior is handsomely finished in marble and mahogany. TWO MEN BURIED ALIVE IN TUNNEL

Entombed Men Sealed in Long Island Approach.

MOUTH OF TUNNEL CAVED IN

Two Hundred Men Digging Through Solid Concrete Hoping to Reach Their Comrades in Time to Save Their Lives.

New York, Dec. 20.—Two men buried 40 feet deep in a tunnel facing death in three different forms, by starvation, suffocation or drowning, and about 200 of their comrades a few feet above them digging against time to save their lives, was the situation today at the Pennsylvania railroad tunnel in Long Island city.

For more than 30 hours these two workmen have been entombed in this tunnel by the cave-in of its mouth, and it is by no means certain that there are only two men buried. The police of Long Island City says there are six.

The tunnel is being built under the East river to Manhattan island, but the entombed men are not under the river bed. They are sealed up in the approach to Long Island City, and it is reported that the water from the river which now fills the part of the tunnel directly under the river bed is kept back from them by the force of the compressed air continually pumped into their prison chamber.

The workers assert that the water must have flowed into the part of the tunnel where their comrades are buried and that they have saved themselves from its rise by climbing upon a ledge of rock near the roof of the tunnel.

The rescuers are sinking a 40-foot deep shaft straight toward the roof of the tunnel as near as possible to the place where the workmen are supposed to be. If the shaft is not very close to the men there is danger when it last pierces the cement roof that all the work will have been in vain, that the compressed air which will be released and allow the water to engulf the men before their comrades can take them out.

The life shaft was 30 feet today, but there was still about ten feet of solid concrete forming the roof of the tunnel to be pierced. This was the work of several hours, involving the use of dynamite to expedite it if at any time the signals of the buried men became faint and indicated that something had gone wrong in their tunnel chamber. They signalled incessantly by rapping on the iron pipes through which air is being pumped to them.

Among the watchers of the diggers from the mouth of the life shaft last night was Mrs. Frank Gale, the wife of one of the men believed to be in the tunnel. Today she was joined by her four children to watch the final piercing of the tunnel.

What will be done at the moment when the tunnel roof is opened has caused the workers much worry.

It has been planned to have divers ready to enter the hole if the water rises too high and at least to be prepared to drop a boat through the opening in case the men are not near enough to be reached by any other means.

To Build Cotton Mill.

Newnan, Ga., Dec. 20.—At a stockholders' meeting of the Newnan cotton mills called for the purpose of discussing the building of a new mill, it was unanimously decided to begin work early in April. The new mill will be located on the Central railway, about 2 miles south of town, and will be capitalized at $500,000. It will contain 25,000 spindles, the present capacity of the old mill, and will be governed by the same board of directors.

Carrollton To Have New Bank.

Carrollton, Ga., Dec. 20.—A new banking institution under the name of "Citizens' Bank" will open for business here about February. The capital stock subscribed is $50,000, of which only $25,000 will be paid in at first.

REAL ESTATE IS LIVELY NOW

Many Valuable Transfers of Property Being Made Daily.

PROPERTY AT GOOD PRICES

Is Being Purchased by Those Desiring Real Estate, and Decision of Buckman Bill Will Make Things Hum in Western Section of City.

That real estate has been lively in Gainesville and vicinity for the past year there can be no denial, but more especially, since this city has been selected as the seat of the University of Florida, has this activity along these lines been noted.

Within the past few months hundreds of pieces of property have changed hands at fair prices, and now, since the supreme court has made the Buckman bill constitutional and the University an absolute certainty, property is bound to change hands rapidly, and the western section of the city, where the new buildings of the University are to be located, will grow and flourish as the green bay tree.

On the strength of the selection of Gainesville as the University city, property at once became marketable in the section mentioned, and at prices considerably advanced over former prices. Not because, however, the owners of this property desired a speculation, but because prospective purchasers sought the location, and competitive bids soon taught the lesson of value to the holders.

Not only has property advanced in West Gainesville, but owners of real estate in other sections of the city have realized the increased value, which is just, and consequently have enjoyed the benefit of the general boom.

Gainesville, which is already one of the leading interior cities of the State, is bound to become a center of refinement and education, and every citizen is glad that he is living here.

WILSON HAS PHOTOGRAPHS.

Pictures of New University Buildings on Exhibition at His Store.

So enthusiastic is Wm. N. Wilson over the recent decision of the supreme court in the Buckman bill, that he has placed on exhibition at his store photographs of the buildings which are to be erected, and takes great pride in showing same to those who come into the store.

Mr. Wilson was largely instrumental in the work of bringing the University here, and to him great credit has been given. Dr. McKinstry, in speaking of the matter Tuesday, stated that Mr. Wilson, a member of the committee who had been appointed to look after Gainesville's interest, had been the most faithful member of that committee, and deserved the credit. "Billy Wilson was faithful to the last," he said, "and the people of Gainesville should feel thankful to him."

While Mr. Wilson is modest, he shows that he is very proud of the final result, and does not lose an opportunity to show visitors to the store the new University buildings.

TURNER IS PROSPEROUS.

Among those who are prosperous in Alachua county is Sam L. Turner of Lake View, who is among the most progressive farmers in the county. Mr. Turner, who raises everything good to eat and provides well for his family, states that he will kill thirty-three hogs this year, which will net him enough meat to keep his family until hog-killing time comes again. He is one of the leading farmers of Alachua county, and never fails to make a living "at home." In addition to the products which he keeps at home, he brings to market many products of his farm, which always realize good prices.

At a recent meeting of the board of deacons of the First Baptist Church it was decided to give the children of the Sunday school a Christmas tree, which will be held in the church on the evening of Monday, the 25th inst. This tree will contain presents for the children, and promises to be an affair of unusual interest. An invitation will be extended to the public, and the function will no doubt be enjoyed.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect it.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What To Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention this paper and don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y.

THE FIRST LOCOMOTIVE.

It Was Built by Oliver Evans, Who Couldn't Lay Up Money.

The real inventor of the locomotive never realized a cent from his invention.

His name was Oliver Evans. He was born in Delaware in 1756 and spent all his life perfecting inventions which were destined to bring him nothing but more poverty. He was the original inventor of the high pressure engine used in locomotives, the only kind that could be employed to advantage in this form of transportation, but realized nothing for his idea.

His application of the notion to both land and water power was somewhat novel.

In 1804 the municipality of Philadelphia called for bids for the dredging of the river and the cleaning of the docks. Evans put in a bid lower than any of his competitors and when it was accepted determined to build a steamboat to do the work.

He fitted out a scow with a steam engine, building both the engine and the scow in his own workshop.

When the boat was ready to be launched Evans determined to give the people of Philadelphia an object lesson in mechanics, so he put the boat on wheels, fitted up a push wheel behind, set his engine to work and propelled the boat through the streets to the river in the midst of an open mouthed throng, not a few of whom had a dim idea that he ought to be arrested for witchcraft.

When the boat reached the bank of the river, the wheels and axles were taken off, the craft was launched, fitted out with other wheels and made to do the work of dredging the harbor.

So far as the invention of mechanical devices went Evans had a splendid genius, but when dollars and cents came up for consideration he was a mere child, and even allowed himself to be cheated out of the money that was due him for cleaning the Philadelphia harbor with his new fangled steamboat.

Pneumonia often follows lagrippe, but never follows the use of Foley's Honey and Tar. It cures lagrippe, coughs and prevents pneumonia and consumption. Ask for Foley's Honey and Tar and refuse any substitute offered. Mr. G. Vacher, 157 Osgood street, Chicago, writes: "My wife had a severe case of lagrippe three years ago and it left her with a terrible cough. She tried a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar and it gave immediate relief. A 50-cent bottle cured her cough entirely." Refuse substitutes. J. W. McCollum & Company.

I was induced to try Ballard's Snow Liniment, which relieved me. I used three 50c bottles. It is the greatest liniment I ever used. Have recommended it to a number of persons. All express themselves as being benefited by it. I now walk without crutches, able to perform a great deal of light labor on the farm." 25c, 50c and $1. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

The Key That Unlocks the Door to Long Living.

The men of eighty-five and ninety years of age are not the rotund well fed, but thin, spare men who live on a slender diet. Be as careful as he will, however, a man past middle age will occasionally eat too much or of some article of food not suited to his constitution, and will need a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets to cleanse and invigorate his stomach and regulate his liver and bowels. When this is done there is no reason why the average man should not live to old age. For sale by all druggists.

IN MAYOR'S COURT.

Jack Long Held Up for Using Profane and Abusive Language.

The session of the mayor's court Wednesday was very interesting, since Jack Long, a white man, was arraigned upon a charge of using profane and abusive language towards J. C. Metz, a colored merchant.

Metz stated before the mayor that Long and another party came to his store on a certain night and forced an entrance into the store. Metz happened to be sleeping there at the time, and held up the intruders, whom he declares proceeded to curse him, and threatened to kill him if he did not get out of the place. The result was that Long was arrested, and in the mayor's court he was fined $50 and costs. He was represented by Attoney Evans Haile, who appealed the case to the circuit court, and the defendant was released under bond.

Failed.

All efforts have failed to find a better remedy for coughs, colds and lung troubles than Foley's Honey and Tar. It stops the cough, heals the lungs and prevents serious results from a cold. J. N. Patterson, Nashua, Iowa, writes: "Last winter I had a bad cold on my lungs and tried at least half a dozen advertised cough medicines and had treatment from two physicians without getting any benefit. A friend recommended Foley's Honey and Tar and two-thirds of a bottle cured me. I consider it the greatest cough and lung medicine in the world." J. W. McCollum & Company.

A Literary Coincidence.

"My father, W. Clark Russell," said Herbert Russell in telling of a literary coincidence, "had finished maturing the plot of his novel, 'The Death Ship,' which is a version of the legend of Vanderdecken. I was his amanuensis at the time. He said to me, 'Tomorrow we will begin the story.' On the following morning when I entered his study to take his dictation of the opening lines he showed me a letter he had just received. It was from W. S. Gilbert, the well known dramatist, asking him why he did not write a novel about the Flying Dutchman."

Funerals in the Highlands.

A Scottish correspondent writes of funerals in the highlands: "There are no undertakers here. A carpenter makes the simple coffin, relatives and friends carry it, hip high, to its last resting place, which is dug when the end of the journey is reached, and, having walked perhaps six miles to the chosen kirkyard, they take a refreshment of sandwiches and whisky and walk home again. The rigorous absence of pomp is maintained, but there is the added embellishment of pipe music."

Get Near to Them.

An English druggist gives the following list of blunders made by his poorer customers: "Catch an eel" for cochineal; "prosperous paste" for phosphorus paste; "grease it" for creosote; "fishy water" for vichy water; "guitar" for catarrh; "everlasting" for effervescing.

Congressman Sparkman has already introduced four bills in the House and not one of them has any reference to railroad rates.

The shortest day of the year has arrived, which don't give one much time to study on Christmas gifts. Many will appreciate the fact.

We have not heard of any business failures in Gainesville of late, notwithstanding the fact that some of our neighbors are much worried.

Look out for the dangerous toy pistols that are here for the holidays, and the combustible fabrics worn about the illuminated Christmas tree.

The fact that Senator Bonarparte is making an effort to stamp out hazing in the Annapolis Academy should raise him in the estimation of the people.

An oil painting of the late Sir Henry Irving sold for $25,000, while one of Ellen Terry only brought $6,000. This was to show, no doubt, that the purchaser thought that Ellen didn't treat Henry right.

MOODY INSTITUTE.

The catalogue of The Moody Bible Institute of Chicago for 1906 is just out. It is an attractive book of 36 pages, containing a historical sketch, an account of the different courses of study, theoretical and practical, and attractively illustrated with photographs of the buildings and picturesque objects in the neighborhood. The president of the Institute is Henry P. Crowell, president of the American Cereal Co., and the deans who are coordinate in their official capacity are Rev. R. A. Torrey of world-wide revival fame, and Rev. James M. Gray, formerly of Boston, and known throughout the country as a specialist in Bible exposition. The music department is in charge of Dr. Daniel B. Towner, the gospel singer and composer, for many years associated with the late D. D. Moody in his evangelistic work. There were nearly 1,500 students enrolled in the different departments last year, representing all the different walks in life, and coming from all the different Christian denominations, as well as from most of the nations of the world. These students are trained for home and foreign missionaries, Bible teachers, evangelists, pastor's assistants, Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., and Sunday school workers, colporters, choristers and singing evangelists, practically without any cost to them. There is an evening department for the special accommodation of a local constituency of clerks and others who cannot attend during the day, and who receive practically the same course of instruction as the day students. There is also a correspondence department and extension department, the latter for the purpose of carrying on conferences, Bible classes and evangelistic campaigns all over the country. Free copies of the catalogue will be sent on application to The Moody Bible Institute, Chicago, by mail.

DON'T ADVERTISE.

Don't advertise if you believe you are wasting money. Let your competitor waste his money on advertising and perhaps in this way you'll soon "put him out of business." Fix his clockworks for him! Just stand back and laugh at him when you see him squandering his money for printers' ink. Once there was boy named John—we think his last name was Wanamaker, or maybe it was Moneymaker. Anyhow, his name was John, with some sort of a maker attached to his last name. He owned fifty yards calico, three pairs jeans, a half-dozen pairs of home-made yarn socks and five pairs of boots. He called this a dry goods store through a Philadelphia newspaper and offered to sell a pair of socks for 39 cents. The don't believe-in-advertising merchant laughed! Young John spent $64 with The Philadelphia Ledger to advertise just one time and had less than $100 worth of goods. He was cautioned by the merchants who "knew it didn't pay!" It was through sympathy that they offered him advice. But John didn't listen to them and went and blew his money in foolishly and today poor John sees the results of his misdoings—he has so many large dry goods stores that he can hardly find time to study his Sunday school lesson.

There are many men who will say that there was a field open for just such advertising, yet there are many spots where similar fields can be opened by careful attention to this branch of the management of a large or small store. The people all over the country are watching for bargains and if you are in the habit of giving them they will watch you.

If Gainesville only had a new opera house and a good family hotel located in some pleasant part of the city, there would be no doubt of both being well patronized if they would use a little printers' ink in making people aware of the fact.

Internal revenue figures show that 10,811,000,000 cigarettes were manufactured in this country during the last year, that number of course representing cigarettes for which revenue stamps were purchased. During the year there were 149,151,890 pounds of tobacco sold, and a large portion of this went into cigarettes rolled by the consumers. The report also shows that more tobacco is used in the form of plug than in any other form.

The importation of Japanese into the States of Louisiana and Texas, for work in the rice fields, will be a great boon to that country. These Japanese are industrious workers, and besides being experts in the culture of rice, know how to use the by-products, and will engage in the manufacturing of matting, hats and various woolen articles.

THE POWER OF STEAM.

Many May See But It Takes Genius to Realize.

When James Watt saw the steam causing the kettle lid to jump up and down he said "There must be power in that steam that it can lift such a weight."

There was.

Millions prior to him had seen the same phenomenon and regarded it as an unexplained mystery.

Senator Burton draws his salary just the same, if he is locked up.

The tobacco growers of Kentucky have a strong union that is making it warm for the trust.

Congressman Sparkman has already introduced four bills in the House and not one of them has any reference to railroad rates.

The shortest day of the year has arrived, which don't give one much time to study on Christmas gifts. Many will appreciate the fact.

We have not heard of any business failures in Gainesville of late, notwithstanding the fact that some of our neighbors are much worried.

Look out for the dangerous toy pistols that are here for the holidays, and the combustible fabrics worn about the illuminated Christmas tree.

The fact that Senator Bonarparte is making an effort to stamp out hazing in the Annapolis Academy should raise him in the estimation of the people.

The Christmas edition of The Fraternal Record of Jacksonville is a handsome publication and of interest to every lodge man and woman in the State.

Be careful and don't quarrel with your best girl before the end of the week, as you want her to have the nice Christmas present you have purchased for her.

The railroads of the country are getting steel freight cars. They think there is less liability of injury to the cars while engaged in smashing the contents.

The Longworth-Roosevelt nuptials will probably take place at the White House some time in February. We will give the exact date as soon as we get our "bid."

Arizona would rather be left out of the Union than be hooked up with New Mexico, as the latter has so much the larger population that they would stand no show.

As soon as Senator LaFollette of Wisconsin can break away from the governorship of that State, he will put in appearance at Washington to accept a chairmanship or two.

An oil painting of the late Sir Henry Irving sold for $25,000, while one of Ellen Terry only brought $6,000. This was to show, no doubt, that the purchaser thought that Ellen didn't treat Henry right.

President Jordan says he would like to see five hundred delegates at the New Orleans meeting of the Southern Cotton Association, to be held January 11th to 13th. The railroads will give a rate of one-half fare.

Chicago bologna sausage and frankfurtes are said to be made of superannuated horses. But the sudden disappearance of so many canines in Jacksonville recently might place the bologna-made in that city under the ban of suspicion.

MOODY INSTITUTE.

The catalogue of The Moody Bible Institute of Chicago for 1906 is just out. It is an attractive book of 36 pages, containing a historical sketch, an account of the different courses of study, theoretical and practical, and attractively illustrated with photographs of the buildings and picturesque objects in the neighborhood. The president of the Institute is Henry P. Crowell, president of the American Cereal Co., and the deans who are coordinate in their official capacity are Rev. R. A. Torrey of world-wide revival fame, and Rev. James M. Gray, formerly of Boston, and known throughout the country as a specialist in Bible exposition. The music department is in charge of Dr. Daniel B. Towner, the gospel singer and composer, for many years associated with the late D. D. Moody in his evangelistic work. There were nearly 1,500 students enrolled in the different departments last year, representing all the different walks in life, and coming from all the different Christian denominations, as well as from most of the nations of the world. These students are trained for home and foreign missionaries, Bible teachers, evangelists, pastor's assistants, Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., and Sunday school workers, colporters, choristers and singing evangelists, practically without any cost to them. There is an evening department for the special accommodation of a local constituency of clerks and others who cannot attend during the day, and who receive practically the same course of instruction as the day students. There is also a correspondence department and extension department, the latter for the purpose of carrying on conferences, Bible classes and evangelistic campaigns all over the country. Free copies of the catalogue will be sent on application to The Moody Bible Institute, Chicago, by mail.

DON'T ADVERTISE.

Don't advertise if you believe you are wasting money. Let your competitor waste his money on advertising and perhaps in this way you'll soon "put him out of business." Fix his clockworks for him! Just stand back and laugh at him when you see him squandering his money for printers' ink. Once there was boy named John—we think his last name was Wanamaker, or maybe it was Moneymaker. Anyhow, his name was John, with some sort of a maker attached to his last name. He owned fifty yards calico, three pairs jeans, a half-dozen pairs of home-made yarn socks and five pairs of boots. He called this a dry goods store through a Philadelphia newspaper and offered to sell a pair of socks for 39 cents. The don't believe-in-advertising merchant laughed! Young John spent $64 with The Philadelphia Ledger to advertise just one time and had less than $100 worth of goods. He was cautioned by the merchants who "knew it didn't pay!" It was through sympathy that they offered him advice. But John didn't listen to them and went and blew his money in foolishly and today poor John sees the results of his misdoings—he has so many large dry goods stores that he can hardly find time to study his Sunday school lesson.

There are many men who will say that there was a field open for just such advertising, yet there are many spots where similar fields can be opened by careful attention to this branch of the management of a large or small store. The people all over the country are watching for bargains and if you are in the habit of giving them they will watch you.

If Gainesville only had a new opera house and a good family hotel located in some pleasant part of the city, there would be no doubt of both being well patronized if they would use a little printers' ink in making people aware of the fact.

Internal revenue figures show that 10,811,000,000 cigarettes were manufactured in this country during the last year, that number of course representing cigarettes for which revenue stamps were purchased. During the year there were 149,151,890 pounds of tobacco sold, and a large portion of this went into cigarettes rolled by the consumers. The report also shows that more tobacco is used in the form of plug than in any other form.

The importation of Japanese into the States of Louisiana and Texas, for work in the rice fields, will be a great boon to that country. THE POWER OF STEAM.

Many May See But It Takes Genius to Realize.

When James Watt saw the steam causing the kettle lid to jump up and down he said "There must be power in that steam that it can lift such a weight."

There was.

Millions prior to him had seen the same phenomenon and regarded it as an unexplained mystery.

Coughing Spell Caused Death.

"Harry Duckwell, aged 25 years, choked to death early yesterday morning at his home in the presence of his wife and child. He contracted a slight cold a few days ago and paid but little attention to it. Yesterday morning he was seized with a fit of coughing which continued for some time. His wife sent for a physician, but before he could arrive another coughing spell came on and Duckwell died from suffocation.—St. Louis Globe Democrat, December 1st, 1901." Ballard's Horehound Syrup would have saved him. 25c, 50c and $1. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Canal for Port Arthur, Tex.

Washington, Dec. 20.—Secretary Taft has accepted the offer of the delegation which appeared before him last week in connection with the construction with the Port Arthur, Tex., canal to supply the right of way and the engineers will at once begin the work of improvement, having a fund of $250,000 available for that purpose.

The Requisite of Beauty.

The first requisite of beauty is a clear complexion. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup clears a sallow, blotched complexion, as it stimulates the liver and bowels, and the eyes become bright and clear. You owe it to your friends to take it if your complexion is bad. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe and it is very pleasant to take. Refuse substitutes. J. W. McCollum & Company.

GOVERNOR WILL STAY HANGINGS

Citation Served on Governor and Attorney General in Rawlings' Cases.

Atlanta, Dec. 20.—Attorney John R. Cooper, of Macon, who represented J. G. Rawlings, and his sons in their trial at Valdosta for the murder of the Carter children, and is still retained as their attorney, has served on Governor Terrell and Attorney General John C. Hart citation based on the writ of error granted to the supreme court of the United States.

The object of this service was to prevent the execution of Rawlings and his two sons on Jan. 6 in accordance with their present sentence, and to put the state formally on notice of the appeal to the United States supreme court. Governor Terrell acknowledged service of the citation and will order the executions stopped until the United States supreme court has formally passed on the case.

Mr. Cooper's appeal is based on the claim that his clients were denied due process of law which is guaranteed under the fourteenth amendment to the federal constitution, in that doctors, lawyers and other classes were excluded both from the grand jury and the petit juries which dealt with the cases.

There is a growing sentiment in favor of life imprisonment rather than hanging for the two boys, Milton and Jesse, but it is thought there will be no doubt about the old man paying the penalty on the gallows.

One Killed and Three Injured.

Kansas City, Dec. 20.—A special to the Star from Reading, Kan., says that a Santa Fe train, No. 17, was wrecked at Badger Creek bridge about 5 miles west of Reading, at 3 o'clock this morning. The tender left the track, derailing all the baggage and express cars and the first two coaches. One express car turned over and caught fire, in which one of the messengers was killed. His remains were recovered. The engineer and two other messengers were seriously injurd, the latter fatally. No passengers were injured

The benefit given by Samuel S. and Lee Shubert, for the Jewish sufferers in Russia yesterday at the Casino netted about $2,500, which will be turned over to Jacob Schiff.

THE PUEBLO INDIANS.

Their Religion Is In a Way a Species of Water Worship.

Eagle feathers are much used in the ceremonials of the Pueblo Indians, and in order to make sure of a supply the Zuni keep the birds in cages, plucking a few feathers whenever they happen to want them. On the other hand, the Moki have eagles' nests located at various spots within thirty or forty miles of their towns, which are considered the property of different clans among them. The eagle lays its eggs in the same nest year after year, and the clans inherit rights to certain nests from generation to generation.

The eagles are not killed, but the new fledged young ones are taken from the nest—that is to say, all but one or two, which must be left. To remind the eagle god to encourage the laying of more eggs by the birds an egg carved out of wood is placed where the divinity will be sure to see it; also, after being plucked, the eaglets are carefully buried in a certain cleft in the rocks, which is the eagle cemetery. Here the eagles have been interred for centuries, and the place is very sacred.

The Pueblo Indians have a tradition of the flood, and they say that the turkey is marked in commemoration of that event, its tail being black at the end where it was dragged through the mud after the water had subsided. The duck is another sacred bird, being associated with water. From the Pueblo point of view, anything that is related to the all precious water in any way is an object of worship. Their religion is made up to a great extent of aquatic divinities and might be called a species of water worship.

Grip Quickly Knocked Out.

"Some weeks ago during the severe winter weather both my wife and myself contrated severe colds which speedily developed into the worst kind of la grippe with all it miserable symptoms," says Mr. J. S. Egleston of Maple Landing, Iowa. "Knees and joints aching, muscles sore, head stopped up, eyes and nose running, with alternate spells of chills and fever. We began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, aiding the same with a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and by its liberal use soon completely knocked out the grip." These tablets promote a healthy action of the bowels, liver and kidneys which is always beneficial when the system is congested by a cold or attack of the grip. For sale by all druggists.

An Impulsive Duchess.

In 1684 Anne Marie d'Orleans, the daughter of Philip of France and Henrietta of England, was married to Victor Amadeus II., and thus brought about an alliance between the houses of Stuart and Savoy. The duchess was an impulsive creature and not seldom was the occasion of surprise and dismay. After the marriage in Paris by deputy she traveled to Les Echelles, where for the first time in her life she saw her husband. The sequel is amusing.

The duchess had arrived only a few hours previously and was just finishing her breakfast as the duke entered the village. On hearing the approaching sound of fifes and timbrels and the cacophony produced by cheers, voices and a general hubbub of excitement, she quickly rose from the table and looked out of the window to ascertain the cause of all this stir and commotion, when she saw the pageant, at the head of which marched a fair young man of distinguished and martial bearing, who she was told was Victor Amadeus. Without a moment's hesitation, casting to the winds all the tedious instructions of etiquette with which latterly she had been surfeited, she flew down the stairs into the street and threw herself into the duke's arms.—"Romance of Savoy."

Torture of a Preacher.

The story of the torture of Rev. O. D. Moore, pastor of the Baptist church of Harperaville, N. Y., will interest you. He says: "I suffered agonies, because of a persistent cough, resulting from the grip. I had to sleep sitting up in bed. I tried many remedies without relief until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which entirely cured my cough and saved me from consumption." Origin of Some of the Dust.

Dust is to a large extent a product of human activity. In houses and workshops, on the highways and in the streets—everywhere there is wear and tear of things, and the product is always dust. The wearing and cleansing of our clothing are continually breaking up its fibers into minute particles, and the friction of clothing on the skin carries away the scales of the epidermis, which are constantly being shed and renewed.

Every contact of human feet, horses' hoofs and the wheels of vehicles with paving and road materials wears away particles of iron and stone. The effects of the weather and the alternations of cold and heat disintegrate all exposed surfaces. To these particles, which form the dust invariably present in dwellings and in the streets, there must be added the innumerable minute cells of vegetable origin incessantly floating in the air, and on a complete view the dust produced by the disintegration of meteors by contact with our atmosphere must also be mentioned.

Dust accordingly consists of portions of all substances, organic and inorganic, which decay by natural processes and are reduced to powder by any means whatever. Few of its constituents can be recognized by the naked eye. The microscope alone can detect the nature of many and especially those of the greatest importance.

Doctors Could Not Help Her.

"I had kidney trouble for years," writes Mrs. Raymond Conner of Shelton, Wash., "and the doctors could not help me. I tried Foley's Kidney Cure and the very first dose gave me relief and I am now cured. I cannot say too much for Foley's Kidney Cure." It makes the diseased kidneys sound so they will eleminate the poisons from the blood. Unless they do this good health is impossible. J. W. McCollum & Co.

How to Clean Old Book Plates.

To restore old book plates that have been injured by age and damp proceed as follows: Place upon a flat surface a sheet of white paper somewhat larger than the print to be cleaned. Carefully dampen the print on both sides with a soft, wet sponge and then saturate it with a mixture of chloride of lime and oxalic acid dissolved in about equal proportions in a pint of cold water. You can tell when the mixture is right by its turning magenta color. Continue to apply it until every stain or spot has disappeared and then with a clean sponge wash the print freely with cold water.

A Riot of Ink.

Canon Nicholl used to tell how on one occasion he had visited the famous house of the Thrales in that suburb of London where Dr. Johnson was at home. "Johnson," said the canon in recalling the visit, "had occupied two rooms, and these were left as he last used them." The sight was an extraordinary one, for ink was splashed all over the floor and even on the walls. It was one of the doctor's habits to dip his pen in ink and then shake it."

The Natural Effect.

TRAFALGAR.

The Swiftness of Action of This Great Naval Battle.

The world will see other sea fights, but never one like this, so close, so swift and with so much in it of the personal element. And what may be called the pace of the battle, the swiftness with which incident follows incident, is almost without a parallel in the history of war. The first gun was fired at 12:15; at 12:22, or only seven minutes after the French guns opened on him, Collingwood, with the British ships nearest to him, was through the enemy's line.

Only one brief minute later, or at 12:23 by the log of the Euryalus, Nelson is in the fight, and is pouring his first dreadful broadside into the stern of Villeneuve's flagship. Two minutes later the French and Spanish topmasts begin to fall. At 1:32, or sixty-seven minutes after the first gun was fired, Blackwood reports "the center and rear of enemy's line to be hard pressed in action." The fate of the battle is practically settled. Already some of the enemy's ships have struck. The swift moments run on, and the pulses of the great fight keep time with them. The advantage is not all on one side.

At 2:36, for example, or less than two hours from the moment when, a shape of majestic pride, the Royal Sovereign moved into the zone of the enemy's fire, she lies a mastless and helpless hulk. She has done her work, but she has paid a terrible price for it. There is at this moment a flutter of flags on the masthead of the Victory, for Nelson has a great captain's watchful vision, and a frigate—it is the Euryalus—comes down with every inch of canvas set, groping her way through the smoke, to take the battered hull of the Royal Sovereign in tow, so that her broadsides—the mighty ship can still fight, though she cannot sail—bear upon the enemy's ships within her reach.

This is not a battle spread through days. It is compressed almost into minutes. The first shot was fired at 12:15; before 3 o'clock flag after flag is going down; a great fleet is crumbling into ruin. By 5:30 o'clock all is over.—Cornhill Magazine.

FINGERS AND FORKS.

Never use a fork when taking a piece of bread.

Avoid using a spoon for anything that is not liquid.

Pastry should be eaten with a fork; also ice cream where the proper forks are served.

It is permissible to eat celery, corn, asparagus, water cress and undressed salad with the fingers.

Olives should be lifted from the dish with the olive fork or spoon, but should be eaten from the fingers.

Lemon is often served with fish and pancakes. The lemon should be taken in the fingers and squeezed upon the viands.

If cut sugar is served and there are no sugar tongs in the bowl, lift the pieces out as delicately as possible with the tips of the fingers.—New York Press.

Composite Pronoun Wanted.

The want of a composite pronoun to express both "he" and "she," and, what is sometimes more important, to express neither he nor she, must have embarrassed every one at some time or another. There are ungrammatical ways of shelving the difficulty, such as, for instance, by translating the convenient French "on" as "they," when we really mean one person who may be either masculine or feminine. The lack of a portmanteau word to express both sexes without specifying either did not, however, trouble the new maid who approached her mistress with the ingenious remark, "Please'm, a friend of mine has called—and may I ask it to tea?"—London Chronicle.

A Point In Punctuation.

For a century past, probably longer, the rule of the best printers and publishers has been, "Three words in the same construction are separated by commas." Two examples will illustrate the rule:

"John, James and Thomas have come."

As so punctuated the first name is vocative, the second and third nominative. Two persons have come.

"John, James, and Thomas have come."

And now the three names are all nominatives. Three persons have come.

The two meanings can be indicated otherwise only by a footnote.—New York Times.

A Stubborn Opening.

The head of the household was going through her husband's pockets the next morning.

"What kept you out so late last night?" she suddenly demanded.

"It was the opening of the campaign, my dear," the lesser half replied.

"Well, it didn't take three corkscrews to open it, did it?"

And she drew the offending articles from his side pocket and waved them before him.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

One Danger Avoided.

"I may run chances of a breach of promise suit," said the fazy old bachelor, "but there is some satisfaction in knowing that the divorce court can't touch me."—Detroit Free Press.

MISSIONARY RIDGE.

How the Scene of a Terrible Battle Originally Got Its Name.

Stretching for miles along the eastern border of the city, picturesque and pleasing to view is Missionary ridge. How well that name is known from the hemlocks of Maine to the flowers of Florida, and yet how different from its name are the associates one gives it when it is pronounced! In history it is recorded as being the scene of one of the fiercest conflicts of the civil war, but to the people who know the origin of the name it is a monument to the memory of a band of devoted, self sacrificing Christian men who, braving the hardships of emigration not for the love of gain, but to help their fellow men, built the Brainard mission on the picturesque heights known by the name of Missionary ridge.

It was in 1817 that the Rev. Cyrus Kingsbury, Ainsworth F. Blunt and the Rev. John Vail first viewed the site of their mission. They were sent here by the American board of commissioners for foreign missions, and the same board had provided for the erection of a mission, including school buildings and a home for the missionaries. But the contractors failed in their contract, and the missionaries were left without money and without even a shelter. But by energetic efforts they created a mission school and built a mill on the banks of Chickamauga creek. The mill race, nearly a mile long, is still visible. The mill was purchased by Philamon Bird in 1852. He tore down the small structure and built what is now known as Bird's mill.

On May 27, 1819, the president of the United States, James Monroe, appeared at the door of the mission unannounced. He was accompanied by General Gaines. Although surprised by his visit, the missionaries were ready to receive him, and he complimented them on their work and in glowing terms praised the beautiful location of the mission. The Brainard mission was used until the Indians left. It did an immense amount of good, and at one time there were more than 500 Indian children being taught beneath its roof. The Lord's supper was observed for the last time on Aug. 19, 1838.

In the old mission cemetery east of the ridge, overgrown with weeds and forgotten by almost everybody, is a little monument on which are the following words:

"Here lie the remains of Samuel Worcester, D. D., pastor of the Tabernacle church, Salem, Mass., first secretary of the American board of commissioners for foreign missions. Born 1770; died June 7, 1821."—Chattanooga Times.

The Vizier's Little Joke.

A Frenchman who lived many years in Fez tells how the Moroccans enjoy a joke at the expense of Europeans. An ultimatum had on one occasion been sent to the governor demanding a letter of apology. No letter came, and the French charge d'affaires went to the vizier, Si-Feddin-Garnit, to announce his departure. "Do not go!" cried the vizier. "You are our friend. The letter only needs the sultan's seal. It will be ready tomorrow." It was not ready on the next day or the next, and on the third day the charge d'affaires, after refusing all refreshment, declared that he was leaving Fez immediately, whereupon Si-Feddin-Garnit drew the letter from his leathern wallet. "It has been ready for five days," he said. "You see, there was no need for anger."

The Burmese Nirvana.

In "The Silken East" the author, V. C. Scott O'Connor, explains what that much discussed consummation of Nirvana, or neikban, is to the faithful Burmese:

And this neikban, what is it? Eternal extinction or eternal and conscious peace? The everyday Buddhist, in Burma at least, is in no doubt upon the subject, and for the rest, for an exalted idea of paradise, I do not remember to have come upon anything finer than this: "Where the believer expects to find a sure shelter against all errors, doubts and fears, and a resting place, where his spirit may securely enjoy the undisturbed possession of truth."

The "Bummaree."

That not very elegant word, supposedly an Americanism, "bummer," is said to be descended from the English "bummaree," itself centuries old, if not very literary in the company it has kept. A "bummaree" was a person who peddled fish outside the regular fish market. Naturally such a person was in disfavor with the dealers in the established markets. The "bummarees" were accused of cheating and selling worthless wares, hence the disagreeable significance of its linguistic descendant.

Doubled.

Mabel—Is she as happy as when she lived with her husband. Molly—Twice as happy. He used to allow her only $9 a week, and now he has to pay her $18 a week alimony.—Kansas City Independent.

You can get a very good idea of "natural selection" in its practical workings by viewing a celery glass after it has been once round the table.
